

Are you:

- Unemployed in the Colac, Geelong, Ballarat region
- Aged between 17 and 29 at the time of application
- Eligible to work for the Victorian government
- A young women 1-2 years postgraduate

The government has endorsed the Working for Victoria Youth Employment program to employ 400-800 unemployed youth.

Roles for up to 12 months fixed term at the Corangamite CMA

Roles include:

Finance Graduate

Estuaries and Environmental Water Graduate

Communications Graduate

Environmental Management Graduate

Data Analyst Graduate

Environmental Statutory Planning Graduate- Floodplain Management

Training, learning and development opportunities available

Apply now* by visiting the Working for Victoria Website

<https://www.vic.gov.au/workingforvictoria> scroll down to “I’m looking for work”, hit “Apply for Work” and then registering via Sidekicker App to find the opportunities.

The opportunities will be found under category “Public Administration and Safety” on sidekicker.

Can’t find the ads? Contact Sidekicker helpdesk on 1800 882 694

*To be eligible, an applicant must be an Australian or New Zealand citizen or a permanent resident and cannot have received a redundancy from the Victorian public sector in the last three years. Depending on the role, applicants may be required to pass a police check and/or Working with Children Check.