

CORANGAMITE CMA

“Health and Productive Lands and Waters cared for and enjoyed by thriving Communities”

- Excellent Career Pathway Opportunity with support and professional development offered
- Flexible working arrangements available
- Work in an Organisation that is passionate about the work it performs
- Positively impact on building a high performing organisation
- Leadership opportunity to drive communications and community engagement

The Corangamite Catchment Management Authority (CMA) is a Victorian Government statutory authority whose role it is to work with and support local communities to improve sustainable land, biodiversity and water resources management, in an area stretching from its head office in Colac to Geelong, Ballarat and Peterborough.

Senior Project Officer- Communications and Engagement

- 2 year contract Part Time position – 22.8 hours per week
- Based at Geelong and Colac with flexible working arrangement available
- Salary Range: $77,566 - $88,477 per annum, (pro-rata for part time and level based on experience)) plus superannuation

About the Role

The Senior Project Officer, Communication & Engagement will play a key role in supporting the implementation of communications strategies, policies, projects and programs within the CCMA Communications & Engagement team, contributing to the business and cultural development of the organisation. In this role, you will be responsible for the management, development and evaluation of project communications and engagement across CCMA and will provide hands-on advice relating to communications, media and community engagement to internal and external partners.

About You

We are looking for an enthusiastic, motivated professional who is passionate about working with our community. You will have a great communication and stakeholder skills and be a highly effective communicator, with the ability to contribute to building a positive, high performing organisation and engage with our local communities. You will have a flexible and adaptable approach, possess the ability to build strong professional relationships and partnerships, and to work as part of a team. You will help to lead a high-quality organisational culture, and model the values of the Corangamite CMA and the Victorian Public Service.

To learn more about this opportunity; to access the Position Description and information on how to submit your application please click on ‘Information for Applicants’. For further discussion regarding the role contact: Amy Leith Communications and Engagement Coordinator, amy.leith@ccma.vic.gov.au or phone 0418 149 068.

Applications must address the Key Selection Criteria outlined within the position description and be emailed to HR@ccma.vic.gov.au by midnight Sunday Date. Sunday 24 October 2021.

As a requirement of the role, the successful incumbent may be required to complete a National Police Record History Check.

At Corangamite CMA, we are building an inclusive workplace to help realise the potential of our employees, embrace our differences, and apply our diverse thinking to innovation and delivering services to Victorian communities. All jobs can be worked flexibly, and we encourage job applications from Aboriginal people, people with disabilities, people of all ages and people from culturally diverse backgrounds.