The Corangamite Catchment Management Authority (CCMA) is a Victorian Government statutory authority whose role it is to work with and support local communities to improve sustainable land, biodiversity and water resources management, in an area stretching from its head office in Colac to Geelong, Ballarat and Peterborough.

About the opportunity

The Corangamite Catchment Management Authority is seeking expressions of interest for a suitably experienced independent member to join its Audit and Risk Committee. The CCMA's Audit and Risk Committee is a subcommittee of the board to assist in fulfilling its governance responsibilities including internal controls, internal and external auditing and risk management.

As an independent member you will provide analysis and review of specific aspects of the CCMA, provide reports, advice and make recommendations to the Board, lead specific tasks and or projects and provide new ideas and new approaches to meet the outcomes of the terms of reference.

The committee meets four times per year, preferably in person, with special meetings convened as required. The term is initially 12 months in accordance with the terms of reference with a negotiable sitting fee per meeting.
