

Project Name	Seeding the Victorian Volcanic Plains
Project Type	Environmental Works
Proponent	Corangamite Catchment Management Authority
Theme(s)	Biodiversity
Project Description	2-part private land stewardship program building on the strengths of GEW Stewardship Program (2020-2023) and establishing a new Natural Temperate Grasslands and Seasonal Herbaceous Wetlands Stewardship Program. Addressing threats and management actions for priority threatened ecological communities as well as priority threatened flora and fauna species that occur within this landscape. This project will build on the robust mapping system established.
Landscape System	Basalt Plains
Landscape System Priority Direction(s)	BAS1, BAS2, BAS3, BAS18
Traditional Owner Outcome(s)	WTOAC2 - By 2030, the current extent of volcanic grass lands and woodlands is increased by 5%. WTOAC6 - By 2029, native vegetation extent remains or increases and cultural places are protected WTOAC4 - By 2035, at least one threatened species is no longer threatened WTOAC12 - By 2021 we have established an ongoing cultural strengthening program for Wadawurrung people
Timeframe	2023-2028
Partner(s)	Wadawurrung Traditional Owners Aboriginal Corporation
Project contact	Jess.Lill@ccma.vic.gov.au
Amount ($)	To be determined
Map	https://nrmp.ccmaknowledgebase.vic.gov.au/nrmpp_map.php?view=24900_0de88cc&map=105
Other Information	RLP Outcome 4: By 2023, the implementation of priority actions is leading to an improvement in the condition of EPBC Act listed Threatened Ecological Communities EVCs Fact sheets Biodiversity 2037